

Day 1

Programme: 25 April 2016

Venue: Surgeons' Hall, Edinburgh

0900 - 0930 Coffee & Registration

0930 – 1000 Welcome & Introductions

1000- 1200 Round table on 'Debating transnational perspectives on Intersectionality: Critiques and contributions'

Speakers:

Professor Nira Yuval-Davis, Director of the Research Centre on Migration, Refugees and Belonging, University of East London

Professor Olena Hankivsky, Director, Institute for Intersectionality Research and Policy, Simon Fraser University

Professor Padma Velaskar, Tata Institute of Social Sciences

Other round-table speakers/participants: Prof. Sundari Ravindran, SCTIMS; Prof. Ramila Bisht, JNU; Abhijit Das, Centre for Health and Social Justice and Co-chair, MenEngage, Prof.

Rachel Tolhurst, Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine.

LUNCH & NETWORKING

1300 – 1630 Gender in all policies: This session will involve independent seminars run in two parallel tracks that will examine gender in health and development policies.

TRACK 1: Seminar on Gender, Masculinities and fragility in International Development (Oxfam, UoE, UoGlasgow, MenEngage)

TRACK 2: ESRC Seminar series on 'Gender and global health institutions' (University of Edinburgh, University College London)

1645 - 1730 Tea/ Coffee and Networking

1730 - 1900 Chrystal Macmillan Annual Lecture: By Nira Yuval-Davis

"Situated intersectional everyday bordering and the UK Immigration Laws"

1930 Dinner@ Sylvesters – Chrystal Macmillan & GRAND network invitees

Day 2, Tuesday, 26 April 2016

Venue: TBC

1300- 1500 hrs (tbc) Integrating gender, equity and rights (led by Gender 'sub-theme' group of the AROGYAM network); Room 2.15, Chrystal Macmillan Building

Towards an integrated framework of analysis for developing and appraising health interventions, research or policies.

Speaker: Prof Sundari Ravindran

Discussants: Prof Ramila Bisht & Dr. Anuj Kapilashrami

1300 – 1700 hrs

Workshop on Universal health coverage – Professor Rajib Dasgupta, JNU [Global Public Health Unit & Global Health Academy]

Day 3, Wednesday 27 April

1-2 pm Intersectionality talk by Anuj Kapilashrami [Glasgow University]

3 -5 pm Local participatory governance and accountability for Public Health [Glasgow/Edinburgh] – Organised by People’s Health Movement Scotland & What Works Scotland

Speaker: Dr. Abhijit Das

Day 4, Thursday 28 April

Networking & Free Afternoon